Food Fest Celebration is an annual event organized by our college to celebrate the diverse culinary traditions and gastronomic delights from around the world. This report aims to provide an overview of the Food Fest Celebration held at our college, highlighting its purpose, organization, activities, and impact on the college community.

Purpose: The primary objective of the Food Fest Celebration is to promote cultural diversity, foster community engagement, and provide a platform for students to showcase their culinary skills. It aims to create an inclusive environment where students from different backgrounds can come together to appreciate and enjoy various cuisines.

Organization: The Food Fest Celebration is organized by a dedicated committee comprising students, faculty members, and administrative staff. The committee is responsible for planning, coordinating, and executing the event. They collaborate with student clubs, local vendors, and sponsors to ensure the success of the festival.

Activities:

1. Food Stalls: The festival features a wide array of food stalls representing different regions. Students set up these stalls and prepared traditional dishes, offering visitors a chance to experience various cuisines.
2. Cooking Competitions: To encourage student participation, cooking competitions were organized where students can showcase their culinary skills. These competitions are judged by renowned chefs Nusruthulla and Kalanjali from BHM Department, providing valuable feedback and recognition to the participants.

Impact: The Food Fest Celebration has a significant impact on the college community, fostering a sense of unity, cultural appreciation, and culinary exploration. It encourages students to explore different cuisines, learn about diverse cultures and develop a deeper understanding of culinary traditions. The event also served as a platform for students to enhance their culinary skills, gain exposure, and enjoy college event.

Ethnic Day

Date : 21/09/2023
Venue : SEA College, Multi Purpose Auditorium
Chief Guest : Dr.Raji, Vice Principal – SEA College of Science, Commerce and Arts and All Departmental Heads.

We observe Ethnic Day to raise awareness about the need of preserving and preserving different regions' historical heritage, civilization, ethnology, art, and culture. The holiday lets people reconnect with their traditional and cultural roots. It supports the essence of time-honored rituals and traditions that have aided in the formation of various civilizations.

On September 27, 2023, the SEA College of Science, Commerce, and Art's Department of Post Graduation hosted an Ethnic Day, where participants from many cultural backgrounds dressed in traditional attire contributed color to the celebration. The celebration kicked off at noon with a lively flash mob in which students danced to the music. Following that was a fashion show in which students demonstrated the diversity of traditional clothes from various regions of India.

The students were overjoyed to be able to return to the open mic event. Finally, all of the pupils danced to a variety of regional music, and the air echoed with the 'Unity in Diversity' theme.

Overall, the Day was a success, and students took part passionately and fervently.
